

BADGIRL CAMP 3D

Written by Brett Stanning
Based on an idea by Paul Andersen

BADGIRL CAMP is a smart take on 70s psychological horror movies that push a tormented girl to breaking point, as if Tarantino reinvented Carrie.

Disturbed teen PAIGE is separated from her little sister and sent to reform camp to clean up her act. It's a hellhole populated by trashy bitches who torment her so much that she flees into the forest. Paige crosses paths with a hulking black creature that chases her back to camp.

The beast stalks the girls and tears them apart one by one. Paige is the only witness and in a frenzy of fear and suspicion the entire camp turns on her. She tools up and charges into the forest to kill the creature and clear her name.
